

1 MR. SMITH: I haven't quite caught up yet.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Let me ask this question.

3 DR. JENKINS: Let me say, I don't know whether
4 you will take Mr. Raver's suggestion, but I would hesitate
5 to ask Mr. Zimmerman to come in the absence of Dr. Sensen-
6 baugh inviting him and coming with him.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: I would certainly not want to
8 do anything that would embarrass Dr. Zimmerman, whom I
9 have known for almost twenty years.

10 DR. JENKINS: All right, Dr. Sensenbaugh.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: I haven't known Dr. Sensenbaugh
12 that long, but I am certain we don't want to do anything
13 to embarrass him, either.

14 Does anybody else have any questions?

15 I have two questions, Mr. Raver. One is, I
16 think you said that this provision in Subsection (11) of 17 Section 52 of Article III that we are discussing in your
18 judgment is the most important single protection that the 19 system has against political interference. Am I quoting
20 you correctly?

21 MR. RAVER: Yes, sir, this is my belief.
